RewardMob Digital Inc. (<https://rewardmob.com>), has teamed up with BigCode Games (<https://www.bigcodegames.com/>) to integrate RewardMob's Mobile eSports platform, offering free-to-play contests on both iOS and Android. The first round of tournaments will begin in February and will offer gamers the chance to compete for real money, prizes and cryptocurrency.

BigCode Games is an industry leading mobile game developer that has launched more than 2,000 mobile games across the App Store, Google Play Store and web-based games, amassing in excess of 100,000,000 installs.

BigCode's game catalogue spans across match-3, first-person shooters and simulation style titles. They recently announced their upcoming launch of 'Azhar the Captain' which has seen them produce a unique 3D Cricket experience alongside Hall of Fame Cricket star Mohammad Azharuddin.

Mohammed Ahmed, Founder BigCode Games, said: "We are excited to be working with RewardMob and the opportunity to make our games even more exciting for our fans. RewardMob will help bring a 'Mobile eSports' feel to our games allowing our users to play for free and win real money, prizes and cryptocurrency'.

Co-founder and CEO at RewardMob Todd Koch said, "Our team have a great deal of admiration for the huge strides BigCode Games have made since their inception. We believe that our partnership will help further enrich the user experience for their existing gamers whilst also bringing a diverse range of high-quality titles to our RewardMob loyal user base."

The RewardMob app can be downloaded through the iTunes App Store or Google Play. RewardMob will be hosting their first tournament ticket sale starting on Tuesday February 27, 2018. Visit <https://ticketsale.rewardmob.com/> for more details on the ticket sale.
