The organisers of the Business Book Awards (<https://www.businessbookawards.co.uk/>) are thrilled to announce the overall winner of the 2018 inaugural event is Campbell Macpherson, author of The Change Catalyst (<http://amzn.to/2B8VJ3M>), a book about the secrets to successful and sustainable business change.

Campbell Macpherson from Oxford, UK said, "I am stunned! Thank you to the organisers and all the judges for putting on this wonderful evening. It's all about leadership, and it's all about leaders embracing change and leading change through their organisations. There are so many good books at these awards that I am now going to go out and buy.

"The book came to me while I was working in Abu Dhabi a few years ago when during a very long Ramadan and a very long summer I had three or four months to work out what I was going to do next and I thought 'let's write a book'. I saw a presentation from Bain & Co that said '88% of change initiatives, strategies and merges and acquisitions fail' and I thought 'goodness me, there's the hook for the book.' The first section is why, the second section is what to do about it and the rest is about cultural events and everything I've been doing for the past 25 years."

Campbell Macpherson has been helping business leaders clarify their strategy and instigate sustainable change for more than 30 years throughout the UK, Europe, Australia, USA, Asia and the Middle East. He has a remarkable wealth of experience across a variety of industries and business disciplines.
