Popular UK rental company Supercar Hire (<https://www.super-car-hire.co.uk>) has recently added a Lamborghini Huracan Spyder to its car selection, now available for hire across the UK. The Lamborghini will be joining an already impressive fleet featuring esteemed high-end brands such as Aston Martin, Ferrari, Jaguar, Porsche and much more.

'Since the start of our journey, the Supercar Hire mission was to make the absolute best supercars in the market easily accessible to a greater number of people. With its powerful V10 engine and distinctive Italian sleekness, the Huracan Spyder is the epitome of thrilling, cutting-edge supercar design. We are beyond certain our clients are going to love test-driving this modern motoring masterpiece,' company spokesperson Aaron Girling commented.

While this recent acquisition marks yet another milestone for the East Midlands based company, Girling also hinted that clients can look forward to more exciting additions in the coming months. Supercar Hire hopes to continue to diversify its vehicle portfolio to include models for motoring enthusiasts of all kinds to enjoy.

Aside from a great selection of cars, Supercar Hire also offers a variety of driving experiences. These exclusive day events allow clients the rare opportunity to test-drive a range of supercars on the road and on popular UK racing circuits.

With a sizeable fleet, convenient prices and great service, Supercar Hire continues to be one the UK's leading rental specialists. A list of all Supercar Hire vehicles and driving experiences can be found at www.super-car-hire.co.uk.
