Altitude Internet, the Award Winning Digital Marketing agency with offices in the UK & Ireland have been awarded the highly coveted Google Premier Partner Status.

Altitude Internet became a Google Partner in December 2014 and since 2014 have continued to work closely with Google to grow client accounts, and deliver the best return on investment for clients by way of expert campaign setup, management and optimisation techniques.

Google only award the coveted "Premier Partner" status to the top performing Digital Agencies globally, Altitude Internet is obviously thrilled to receive the recognition from Google.

To receive the coveted Premier Partner recognition, Google assesses the AdWords manager account that's associated with the agency profile to determine whether the agency meets the performance requirements.

Google reviewed Altitude Internet for the following criteria.

- Client revenue growth
- Client retention
- Overall revenue growth
- Growth in number of advertisers

This evaluation was carried out over an 18 month period.
