One of the most renowned cocktail bars in the heart of the Lake District, The Fizzy Tarté has just announced a brand new competition in partnership, with local and award-winning spirit makers, The Lakes Distillery.

The companies which both have a passion for creating quality products and drinks have joined forces to show followers and guests from all over the UK the chance to see what Cumbria has to offer. Two exclusive prizes are on offer including A Gin Afternoon Tea at The Fizzy Tartè & a tour of The Lakes Distillery.

Graham Hadaway, Marketing Director of The Fizzy Tarté said... "Myself, and our Head Bar Tender got together with The Lakes Distillery one summer's evening and after a few drinks made with their great spirits, had the fantastic idea to work together and show the rest of the UK that's Cumbria is a place to have fun, and enjoy unique vibes and experiences that you can't find anywhere else!"

Competitors of the competition are encouraged to have fun, get creative, and show off an exciting creation with their favourite Lakes Distillery spirit, on Facebook or Instagram for a chance to win. Entries close on September 2nd 2018 - with the finalist chosen early September by public vote.

The inspiration for this competition is a reflection of the of The Fizzy Tarté as a brand who are always striving to give guests a 5* experiences and service which is customer centric and refreshing.

'The Fizzy Tarté is a luxury establishment specializing in cocktails, champagne and afternoon tea in the heart of Bowness on Windermere.'
