An amazing mental health clinic is looking to collaborate with journalists and influencers for editorial coverage in exchange for a complimentary course of treatment.

The treatment (which is worth around £6,000) is NICE approved and totally non-invasive.

The clinic can treat a range of mental health conditions including depression (<https://www.telegraph.co.uk/health-fitness/mind/brain-massage-secret-treating-depression/>), addiction, anxiety, PTSD, OCD and BPD - but they are particularly keen to work with anyone suffering from depression or addiction issues.
