The Lake District August 2018 - The Fizzy Tarté, one of the Lake District's most infamous cocktail bars, known for its quality drinks, luxury handmade patisserie and distinctive, yet relaxing environment, has just launched a brand new cocktail menu.

The cocktail bar which has received immensely positive feedback over the two years of production have spent the last 9 months working how they can raise the bar once more and put the Lake District on center stage for Cocktails.

Huge anticipation has surrounded the new menu as the Fizzy Tarté is known to have worked with some of the best mixologists from across Europe. Their aim is to take their cocktails to the next level whilst keeping them as exciting as ever and at the quality you would find at cocktail bars in cities such as London, New York & Dubai

Guests can expect the promise of the absolute freshest ingredients, homemade syrups, and only the best, tried and tested spirits. However, this new launch also promotes three new and unique cocktail experiences found nowhere else.

Refined and improved classics are welcomed back for those who like to enjoy their traditional favourites, and a brand new list of Made en Maison cocktails look to bring a new era of fun and sophistication to the cocktail menu. And last but not least, the Top Tarté cocktails - a blend of show-stopping presentation filled with pure excitement and imagination. Speaking with Bar Manager Kris Grobelny at the Fizzy Tarté he is so confident about this new range of cocktails that he said "our Top Tarté Cocktails are a new level for the Lake District and particularly the TT Pornstar Martini cocktail is unbelievably delicious, so good in fact that I would say it's fit for a queen".

Together with CEO Stephen Hargreaves, General Manager Tamas Nagy and Nathan Larkin, the owner of 'Speak in Code' - they say "We're creating something exceptional and showing the rest of the UK that Cumbria has talent in the world of cocktail making. Guests will be able to take a seat, experience true showmanship service and take a sip of an exquisite drink. They are also trying to push the customer experience in new directions and through the use of QR codes allow the customer to discover for themselves more about their own drink as well as others that may be on the menu."

For those who enjoy a tittle or a slice of indulgence, as well as bespoke cocktails, the new menu will also be offering a new selection of wines, champagne, prosecco, and patisserie. All of which can be enjoyed outside on the new, open terrace or inside the bar. As usual, the Fizzy Tarté will remain a high-class, modern, and sophisticated environment with excellent service.

'The Fizzy Tarté is a luxury establishment specializing in bespoke cocktails, champagne and afternoon tea in the heart of Bowness on Windermere.'
