Join JWG, Standard Chartered Bank, Deutsche Bank and Inforalgo at 2pm on January 15th to discuss findings of new Regulatory Reporting market report

London – January 8th , 2019 - New research by independent financial regulatory think-tank JWG (<https://jwg-it.eu/>), in partnership with Inforalgo (<http://www.inforalgo.com/>), the Capital Markets data automation specialist, shows that after years of 'making do', financial institutions are now proactively ramping up their regulatory compliance capabilities to cope with intensifying global requirements - and the significant additional demands of MiFID II.

This webinar will debate and explore the findings, which confirm a growing appetite for a more sustainable, repeatable approach to Capital Markets transaction reporting, as regulatory demands soar. The panel of experts will consider the successes and failures of how they have historically approached trade and transaction reporting; and debate more proactive and strategic approaches to regulatory change.

The panel includes PJ Di Giammarino, CEO, JWG; Chad Giussani, Head of Operations, Transaction Reporting and Compliance, Standard Chartered; Dawd Haque, Global Lead for Regulatory Market Initiatives, Transformation and Strategy, Deutsche Bank; and Phil Flood, Solutions Architect, Inforalgo.

JWG conducted in-depth interviews with senior executives from 12 global financial institutions in October 2018. The resulting whitepaper confirms that, while trading organisations had been just about managing with their reporting obligations, the considerable demands of MiFID II and an acceptance that reporting pressures will only continue to grow, has prompted a rethink about how firms monitor and manage data.

All webinar registrants will receive a free copy of the The JWG/Inforalgo December 2018 whitepaper, Regulatory Reporting; Time for a rethink? – You can pre-order your copy from Inforalgo's web site (<https://inforalgo.com/regulatory-reporting-time-for-a-rethink/>).

The webinar takes place at 2pm on January 15th 2019. Book your FREE place here (<https://register.gotowebinar.com/register/2062531376728358668>).
