A collaboration with Forbes Monaco and The Westbury Mayfair, a Luxury Collection Hotel, London.

In collaboration with Forbes Monaco and The Westbury Mayfair (<https://www.marriott.com/hotels/travel/lonwt-the-westbury-mayfair-a-luxury-collection-hotel-london/>), a Luxury Collection Hotel, London, renowned arts and media commentator Nataliya Cola, will be presenting global pop-art sensation Romero Britto (<https://www.britto.com>) premiere standalone gala in the principality of Monaco.

Ms Cola will present Romero Britto at an invitation-only event to be held at the Royal Yacht Club of Monaco, on 21st September 2019. This is the latest presentation in her "Nataliya Cola Presents" series, which launched at the Cola family's prestigious Westbury Mayfair hotel in London.

Having been nominated one of Forbes Monaco (<https://www.forbes.mc>) 20 Entrepreneurs of 2020, Ms Cola brings the works of both new and established artists to exciting, new frontiers, reaching audiences who appreciate the many diverse genres of the arts world.

In honour of this unique presentation, members of Marriott Bonvoy™ – Marriott International's travel loyalty rewards program – have the opportunity to attend the private show in Monaco. The Westbury Mayfair is giving Marriott Bonvoy™ members the chance to bid for this exclusive experience as part of Marriott Bonvoy Moments™ with an all-encompassing luxury weekend in Monaco. The experience includes an overnight stay in one of the luxury suites at The Westbury Mayfair and return flights from London to Monaco with VIP transfer to and from the airport, and a one night stay in Monaco for two people, with the opportunity to personally meet with Mr. Britto at the event and talk about his artwork. Nataliya Cola stated that, "It's a pleasure to welcome my friend, the talented Romero Britto, to the Royal Yacht Club of Monaco for this unprecedented gala. I believe his works warrant a permanent display in the Principality and also stylistically connect the hustle and flair of Mayfair with the acute energy and opulence of Monte Carlo. My thanks to Romero and to our friends at Forbes Monaco – I look forward to a stellar event to come."

Romero Britto added that, "Monaco is so beautiful, peaceful and international, and such a place of inspiration. I can't wait to be there in September! I'm delighted to partner with Nataliya Cola and share more of my art with the world, in this truly global platform in the Principality."

Andrew Henning, General Manager of The Westbury Mayfair, a Luxury Collection Hotel, London, commented that, "Our collaboration with Nataliya and the vibrant Gala Series is reflective of our commitment to providing our guests and members with access to unique and engaging experiences through Marriott Bonvoy Moments™. This event in Monaco with pop art sensation Romeo Britto promises to be a unique opportunity to see the work of an acclaimed artist and enjoy some time in Monaco. It's an example of our focus on finding innovative ways to provide unique member benefits around the world. We look forward to the continued success of the 'Nataliya Cola Presents' series in the months and years to come.”

The Westbury Mayfair

(<https://www.marriott.com/hotels/travel/lonwt-the-westbury-mayfair-a-luxury-collection-hotel-london/>) has a long and established pedigree as the first American-owned five-star hotel in London. The very first Westbury was opened in 1927 in New York City by the polo playing Phipps family, and later in 1955 The Westbury London was opened, becoming the first luxury American hotel in London and one of the finest hotels in Mayfair. Now it is part of the Marriott International group and an esteemed member of The Luxury Collection hotels. In 1999, Cola Holdings acquired The Westbury Mayfair and set in motion some radical changes, which are still in full swing for 2019 and 2020.

Since the day it opened, The Westbury Mayfair instantly became a hub of interest, and a go-to for its international clientele, who have been coming back to the hotel for two or three family generations, enjoying the home they have grown to know over the years. Its location is renowned for being in the heart of fashion, finance and foreign relations, and it attracts numerous celebrities and heads of state, all of which form part of the rich heritage of the building.
