02nd September 2019, Aspire welcomed Mat Law as a Senior Consultant joining their market-leading specialist Research, Insight and Data recruitment team.

Mat joins as the eighth member of a very experienced team headed by Business Director and industry veteran Amy Kirby.

Mat joins with 6 years prior experience having formerly worked for New Chapter and Hasson Associates with specialist knowledge of Market Research within both agency and client-side environments.

The team is unique as it is supported by Aspires Birmingham based Talent Hub, a dedicated candidate resourcing and Management centre and as Mat believes in offering a consultative approach to benefit both clients and candidates he welcomes the extra support the Talent Hub provides.

Amy Kirby, says, "We're thrilled to welcome Mat to Aspire, excited to see his skills in action supporting our longstanding and new clients in the industry. We are confident that he will excel here and wish him all the success."

Established since 1992, Aspire offer a 360 degree recruitment solution for the Digital, Media and Marketing Communications sector in and around London, Birmingham, Manchester, APAC and North America.
