ONAIE is excited to announce the release of a new line of handmade sheepskin slippers, expanding its bespoke collection of cosy sheepskin slippers and moccasins. Made by hand in the Polish Highlands, every pair of ONAIE slippers comes imbued with artisanal charm thanks to the unique techniques used in their creation, passed down through the generations.

Contemporary and utterly of the moment, these chic slippers mark a directional new turn for the brand, which already offers a wide range of luxuriously plush, hand-embroidered sheepskin slippers and moccasins that have gained a cult following on social media and amongst the industry's most discerning influencers.

With a beautiful backstory rooted in family history, a richly artistic heritage stemming from the rural Polish Highlands, and a focus on handcrafted techniques, each pair is completely unique and sure to garner compliments with every wear.
