

Ashfords LLP proud winner of 'South West Property Law Firm of the Year'

Submitted by: Ashfords LLP

Monday, 14 October 2019

Ashfords LLPs' highly reputed Real Estate Team are delighted to have been awarded 'South West Property Law Firm of the Year' at the prestigious Insider South West Property Awards 2019.

Held at the Marriott Hotel in Bristol on Thursday 10 October, the renowned awards celebrated many achievements and the undisputed excellence of businesses in the South West property sector.

Ashfords' Real Estate team led by Partner Andrew Worley beat Osborne Clark and Burges Salmon to claim the category's top spot. This Award reflects the firm's continued growth and expansion of its offering and expertise in the Real Estate sector.

The team has undergone significant growth over the last two years with the appointment of three senior hires, two Legal Directors and four Associates, as well as an increase in talented Solicitors and Paralegals, resulting in valuable specialist expertise and client wins. Ashfords' Real Estate team now pride itself on being the largest development practice in the South West advising 7 out of 10 of the UK's top housebuilders.

Andrew Worley, Partner in Ashfords' Real Estate Team said: "We're delighted to have won this acclaimed award and to have recognition of our achievements. This has been very much a team effort in what continues to be a very challenging and competitive market".

Ashfords LLP
ashfords.co.uk