It's the Summer of sun we have all been waiting for and what better way to make the most of it than with a visit to the all-new Geronimo Festival taking place at the iconic Knebworth House from 30th June – 1st July. Renowned for its concerts and festivals, Knebworth is set to play host to the most fun-packed kid's day out families have ever seen.

Geronimo is billed as 'Glasto for Kids' and there really is something for children and families of all ages. The huge main stage situated at the heart of the festival will see stars of children's television, including the ever-popular Justin Fletcher, performing to entertain the masses but that's not all. Sit back and enjoy watching Mr Bloom, Hook & Line, Big Fish, Little Fish, Kids Bop and more. Older kids will also love seeing popular YouTubers Max & Harvey take to the stage too. There's even a visit from the Gruffalo plus an additional theatre showing performances of Enid Blyton's Famous Five Adventures.

There really is something for everyone and so much to do you will want to spend two days there. Choose from eco-friendly activations and get to grips with nature with a wide array of activities to entertain and delight children of all ages. With jousting and a children's motorcycle display team as well as countless other activities, it really is a break away increasingly digital world we live in, enjoying quality time with family and friends.

Enjoy a Parrot Encounter and meet the Giant Tortoises as well as trying your hand at Archery and Axe throwing. What's more Geronimo Knebworth tickets will also give you access to the Knebworth Gardens, Dino Train and Adventure Park (usually worth £9.50).

Created by father of seven, Simon Goldman who wanted to create a festival where families can come together and make memories that will last a lifetime, this really is the ultimate family destination of Summer 2018.
