Northgate Information Solutions has been awarded the Oracle ISV Partner of the Year Award at the annual Oracle PartnerNetwork (OPN) Specialized UK Awards.

This is the second consecutive year that Oracle judges have recognised Northgate Information Solutions' success in delivering innovative solutions and achieving strong customer success using Oracle applications.

David Callaghan, Senior Vice President, Oracle UK, Ireland and Israel said: "These awards recognise the specialised partners that have consistently delivered high level innovation and excellence in their areas of expertise over the past year. The judging panel believes Northgate Information Solutions has shown commitment to growing its Oracle business, has enhanced skills in its Oracle product line and has shown focus in vertical industries. We'd like to congratulate all partners on their award wins."

Joe Bradley, Managing Director, Northgate Public Services said today: "We are delighted to have received this award. Our focus is always on meeting our client's needs and helping them to deliver better services for less. The successful relationship we have developed with Oracle is key to this approach. Now, more than ever, it is essential that organisations work collaboratively to bring together their expertise and deliver positive outcomes for the community."

Northgate Information Systems is a Gold level member of OPN and is Specialized in Oracle Solaris.
