HostelBookers are offering customers the ultimate Christmas gift - cheap Christmas holidays (<http://www.hostelbookers.com/article/christmas-travel/christmas-holidays-on-a-budget/>) in the most magical cities in Europe.

The cities of London, Berlin and Prague are all perfect for a bargain city break this winter. Home to some of the best Christmas markets in Europe, travellers can get their shopping done in style and soak up the authentic atmosphere of a traditional holiday.

Berlin and Prague's markets have hundreds of stalls selling traditional crafts and delicious treats like warm mulled wine and roasted chestnuts. London's Shopper's Markets, the 'Winter Wonderland' Ice Rink in Hyde Park and famous lights on Oxford Street also bring plenty of festive spirit.

Going away at Christmas may seem expensive, but hostels offer an affordable alternative for a Christmas holiday. And to really bring good tidings this year, HostelBookers have teamed up with three of the best hostels in each city to offer guests some top Christmas gifts.

Sir Toby's Hostel in Prague (<http://www.hostelbookers.com/hostels/czech-republic/prague/1043/>) is offering special Christmas rates for all bookings made through the HostelBookers website. One of the top-rated Prague youth hostels, the staff are hosting a Christmas Eve buffet with all the trimmings.

Celebrate Christmas at The Journey's Hostel Kings Cross in London (<http://www.hostelbookers.com/hostels/england/london/6541/>). Beds booked for the 20th-27th December are a bargain £10 per person, and come with a bumper batch of Christmas presents. Guests can enjoy free entry to top local clubs, free drinks vouchers in a local pub, and 30% off food in a cool London restaurant. There's even a Christmas party with live singing carols.

The Generator Hostel in Berlin (<http://www.hostelbookers.com/hostels/germany/berlin/1453/>) has some real treats in store for guests this December, with a free traditional Christmas dinner, welcome drink and Christmas party on the 24th. The Generator also offers a VIP Christmas Package Deal through HostelBookers, with three nights in a shared room including dinner, for €49.
