ACTRESS TINA MALONE UP FOR AN AWARD IN THE UK'S FIRST POSITIVE AWARDS

Nominations are flooding in for the UK's first Positive Awards which take place in Liverpool in September to celebrate people's positivity and mindfulness.

Actress Tina Malone is among the nominees and said, "It is so nice to be nominated. I have never won anything, I have been nominated for Emmys and BAFTAs but nothing in my own city and I am really flattered. After the struggles I have faced over the last 18 months, it has been horrendous, but when I heard about the nomination especially, this really given me a lift and I am moved. I am a big believer in positivity and this is wonderful."

People, businesses and celebrities alike will come together to see if they have won one of 16 prestigious awards on the night of 21 September at the Hilton in Liverpool

Organised by Lifestyle Events, spokesperson Amanda Moss said, "Isn't it about time we showed gratitude to the people and businesses who make every day a little bit happier? There's always so much negativity floating around in the news and so we're turning people's thoughts to joy and spreading some positivity. There are so many people inspiring others everyday, they may be facing inner struggles but they keep going. The message is that a positive mind creates positive actions and in turn brings about positive change for the better for everyone. So let's celebrate that and show the world we have a lot to be thankful for.

We can get lost in ourselves working so hard and it is important to reconnect with other people. Positivity promotes productivity and there are some incredible people doing inspirational things every day and there's no better platform to shout about it than at The Positive Awards."

The awards are:

The WOW award    The LEADERSHIP award
The INFLUENCER award
The POSITIVITY award
The ADMIRATION award
The ESTEEM award
The RESPECT award    The APPRECIATION award
The HONOUR award    The SUCCESS award
The HAPPY award    The PROSPERITY award
The ENDEAVOUR award
The ACHIEVEMENT award

Buddha Therapies director Tracy McMahon, who runs an award winning holistic spa and training centre is one of the judges and said, "This is an absolute honour to be able to witness so many inspiring people under one roof. We all have the power within us to create a positive future and there's no better place to start than here."

The event is hosted by Darren Lawrenson, the UK's top mind masters who specialises in maximising people's performances, who promises to lift the energy in the room. He said, " It's sometimes difficult not to get drawn into daily gossip and chatter about what's "wrong" in the world. The news and the press live on the back of drama, bad news, gossip and at times pure negativity, so to be invited to an evening where only positive achievements and behaviours are focused on and celebrated is a real big deal for me. I am truly delighted to have offered the opportunity to share the stage with people that at times swim upstream to stay focused on the good, the possible and the positive aspects of human behaviour and endeavour.

This will be a pure night never to forget and a reminder and recognition to their achievements and their persistence. Liverpool the home of the possible and a culture of "can do", "why not" and anything is possible is the perfect place to host such an event."
